Food Hub Feasibility Study: Crawfordsville Regional Input Session

INDIANAPOLIS – A Food Hub Feasibility Study will take place on October 9, 2014 at 6:00p.m. EST, located at the Crawfordsville District Public Library, 205 S Washington St., Crawfordsville, IN 47933.

The purpose of the Food Hub Feasibility Study is to assess the needs of growers and consumers regarding the potential for regional food hubs operating as a part of a statewide network to facilitate the marketing and access to specialty crops.

The Regional Input Sessions are attended by local producers and institution representatives to gather information about the status of the local market.
